

UNIVERSITY OF BELGRADE
FACULTY OF FORESTRY

13th InnovaWood General Assembly
10 – 11 June 2015, Zagreb

University of Belgrade Faculty of Forestry

The Faculty

- the oldest and the highest scientific institution of higher education in the fields of forestry and wood science in Serbia
- 4 departments:
 - Department of Forestry
 - Department of Technology, Management and Design of Furniture and Wood Products
 - Department of Ecological Engineering for Soil and Water Resources Protection
 - Department of Landscape Architecture and Horticulture

The Faculty today

UNIVERSITY OF BELGRADE
FACULTY OF FORESTRY

13th InnovaWood General Assembly
10 – 11 June 2015, Zagreb

The Faculty today

- 4 departments
- 20 subdepartments
- 290 employees
 - 130 lectures and researchers
- more than 2000 students

The Faculty today

System of studies:

Bachelor + Master + PhD

4 + 1 + 3

Educational and Research Facilities

Educational station “Goč” (Central part of Serbia)

Established in 1956

Area 3 700 ha

- includes: forests, forest nurseries, a complex of buildings (for 150 people)

- old sawmill

- new kilns (2x25 m³), steam engine and boiler (150 kW)

Educational and Research Facilities

Educational station “Debeli Lug” (east of Serbia)
Area 2 000 ha

Arboretum (Belgrade)
Established in 1956
Area 2 ha
More than 300 species

Department of Technology, Management and Design of Furniture and Wood products

- 90-110 students per year
- 6 laboratories

Thank you for your attention!

UNIVERSITY OF BELGRADE
FACULTY OF FORESTRY

13th InnovaWood General Assembly
10 – 11 June 2015, Zagreb